Facilities Committee Member (Volunteer)

Location: Toronto, ON (Hybrid)

Do you have experience in facilities management and a desire to give back to your community? Join the Facilities Committee as an adjunct member of our Board of Directors, and help us create safe, welcoming and functional spaces for programs!

We are looking for a volunteer who can lend their expertise in overseeing building maintenance, renovations, and safety standards. Your contributions will help us provide the best environment for the youth we serve.

What you'll do:

- Evaluate and prioritize facility improvement needs.
- Assist with the planning and oversight of renovation projects.
- Ensure facilities meet safety and accessibility standards.
- Collaborate with other committee members and staff to enhance operational efficiency.

What you bring:

- Experience in facilities management, construction, or building maintenance.
- Knowledge of safety regulations and building codes.
- Commitment to improving spaces that serve youth.
